

Free one day driving course for over 60s

Please see below details of a free one day course being offered by South Yorkshire Police for safer driving for Sheffield residents 60+. This is not a SU3A event and will have non U3A members also attending.

Date: 20th October. Start: 9.15am Finish: 3pm

Venue: S Yorks Fire & Rescue Training Department on Beaver Hill Road, Sheffield S13. Parking is available on site

Cost: FOC - refreshments and a buffet lunch are also provided

Summary: "The day aims to help older drivers keep driving safer, for longer. The session will help attendee's to brush up on their highway code knowledge, learn more about new initiatives such as Smart Motorway driving, consider aspects of the ageing process that could impact on their driving abilities and offer ways to address these changes. It includes a classroom session with presentations given by various professionals and specialists about a range of issues that could affect driving in later life and over the lunch time period again an opportunity to talk to various businesses and charities such as Sheffield Royal Society for the Blind, Victim Support, Age UK, Trading Standards & mobility providers. There will also be an offer to attendees for a practical on-road driving assessment with an approved driving instructor completely free of charge at a convenient date and time for both parties.

Restrictions: You must be a car driver

Places are limited, 25 only, so if you wish to and are able to attend please contact chair@sheffieldu3a.org.uk asap to book your place. First come first served! Deadline for applications 8 October.

Please do not turn up on the day as you will be turned away
